THE VISIT OF MISS GOULD

She Will Dedicate the New Y. M. C. A. in This City.

WORK AT THE MISSION

A Number of New Things Being Planned—Visit of Dr. Calley. Methodist Sunday Schools.

The approaching visit to Richmond of Miss Helen Gould is being awaited with the very keenest interest, and more particularly in Y. M. C. A. circles. Miss Gould will arrive here Saturday morning, April 23d, and will spend Saturday and Sunday in Richmond. At the Reservoir on Saturday she will dedicate the new building of the Street Railway Young Men's Christian Association, established largely through her generosity. She will hold three receptions in the house, and will meet all the members of the association. On Sunday two Gospel services will be held in the building, one in the morning for women and another in the afternoon for men. It is understood that Miss Gould will attend both of these services.

Every promise of success attends the new street railway work. The building will be completed in time for the arrival of Miss Gould, and will be one of the best equipped in the country. The men themselves are thoroughly interested in the work. A special observation car is now being completed by the company and will probably be christened "Virginia" by Miss Gould. The car is one of the long, double-truck kind, and is painted a beautiful green. Its interior is being finished in cherry. The car will be hand-carried, and will be furnished with upholstered burn-out chairs. It will be kept for special parties and will be used by Mr. Frank Jay Gould, his relatives and friends.

The Methodist Institute. Mr. Wiley said yesterday that it was between seasons with them at this time. That is to say, the summer work of the Institute is largely carried on out of doors. Just now, the rush of cold weather is over, and several departments that were needed only in winter have closed, and a half dozen other features of the work will stop for the summer by the 1st of May.

"However," said Mr. Wiley, "there is enough to do all the time if you look for it, and always something of interest going on. For instance, the mail brought me two letters that pleased very much those about the Institute. One was from a girl rescued some time ago and sent to her home and mother, a thousand miles from Richmond. She was a beautiful young woman, hardly more than a child. She writes:

"A happier meeting, Mr. Wiley, was never witnessed. Mother cried and laughed by turns. I am going to see Dr. Blank at once and try to get him to give me some work to do. He has connected with his large church a mission. I would have gone before, but have been so nervous since I reached home. I read the little Bible you gave me, and pray to understand it. Oh! I am so thankful and so happy. Remember me to Mrs. Wiley. She was so good to me. Pray for me, please."

The other letter Mr. Wiley showed was from Jacksonville, Fla., where one year ago he went to help inaugurate a work like the one here. It is evident that it has succeeded beyond all expectations. Money is being raised to pay for an $8,000 building, and an enclosed report shows a most flourishing institution on lines of the well known and practical Nineteenth Street Mission in Richmond. The letter urged Mr. Wiley to come down and conduct a series of services for ten days.

On being asked what there was ahead in mission work here, Mr. Wiley said: "There is a great deal ahead. Three things should be done: "First, and possibly most important, there should be a training school or home for white girls and women, where after a course of instruction, a first-class cook and housekeeper will be turned out, who could get salary enough to equal the wages paid in factories.

"In the second place, there should be an industrial department in our City Mission work, where brooms are made, chairs caned and other simple things taught, only so far as to show who is willing to work. It is quite possible in this connection that many of the vacant lots and fields in Richmond could be cultivated by the poor. Don't smile. It is most successfully done elsewhere. Why not here?"

"In the third place, we must do something for the 800 white prisoners who leave our jail penitentiary each year. Can you think of anything more Christian than to have a tactful person to meet those who are at all hopeful, and who leave the prison and carry them

The Board of Directors will meet the fourth Sunday in this month, at Broad Street Church.

The Resurrection.

Since the Easter sermon preached by the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, rector of Monumental Episcopal Church, considerable interest has been taken here in the subject of the "Resurrection." Dr. Evans spoke earnestly and eloquently against the old theory that the actual physical body of the soul would be united with a glorified and spiritualized body, as is plainly stated by St. Paul in his epistle to the Corinthians.

Several ministers have taken the matter up, and on Sunday two or three sermons were preached. At the Second Presbyterian Church, Dr. Russell Cecil, in referring to the resurrection of the Lord, spoke of his spirit reuniting his mortal body, which was proven by his taking of food and the showing of the spear wound in His side.

Dr. Cecil was of the opinion that in like manner on resurrection morn the souls of the dead would be incarnated in the human body, which would be immortalized. He used many instances of the Bible in support of his argument.

B. Y. P. U. Meetings.

Considerable interest has been given to the Baptist Young People's Union work in this city by the visit on Sunday of the Rev. Walter Calley, D. D., international secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union of America. Dr. Calley held three services at the First Baptist Church, and at all of them a most enthusiastic throng of great interest. He preached in the morning and in the afternoon held a conference with the young people of the city interested in the Baptist Young People's Union work. At night he preached again, and the audience upon this occasion was quite large.

Dr. Calley is spending some time in Virginia in the interests of the work with which he is connected. He left the city at 2 o'clock yesterday.

Health Talk.

An illustrated health talk, under the auspices of the C. W. B. M. Society, will be given by Mrs. Kate Logan Brougham at Third Christian Church, Twenty-sixth and Marshall Streets, to-day, 3:30 P. M. All ladies are invited to attend. There will be no collection and no charge for admission.

At St. Peter's.

Services of unusual interest were held Sunday morning at St. Peter's Cathedral. A large class, including a number of boys and girls and many adults, made their first communion. Mrs. Milhah, who was Miss Alma Christian, and Captain James Phillips, were in the class.

JOHNSON GOES TO THE GRAND JURY

Charged With Burglary—Sent to Jail for Stealing Currants.

Watson Johnson was sent on to the grand jury yesterday and placed under bonds for twelve months besides.

He is known in select circles as "Sunshine." The specific charge against him was burglary, in entering the residence of Mr. A. H. Pahlke, on North Second Street. He found $20 in coins, which he carried off last Saturday night. Officers Amos and Kerse took a hand in the game, and landed the "Sunbeam." He "fessed up," and some of the money was recovered.

Howard Campbell was sent down for thirty days for defrauding O. C. Neal out of bond and lodging money worth $100.

Jane Branch, colored, beat her mother and was fined $20 and given twelve months under security.

Nine negroes were caught playing skin by Sergeant Werner. Officers Vest, Jennings and Ogilvie, and paid $2.50 each.

R. W. Carter, W. A. Brown, Mary Clarke and Rosa H. Brantley were fined $2.50 each for being disorderly on the street.

Charles Wood paid $10 for being disorderly at the Methodist Institute, and was given ninety days in jail besides.

A lot of drunks came up and were passed along.

UNIQUE CHARACTER.

Zack Walsky Eats Nothing But German Pretzels.

Zack Walsky, ahead of "The Factory Girl," is a unique character. He is considered one of the most successful "pipe dreamers" on the road, and has pulled many a show out of a hole.

Mr. Walsky is unique, however, in that he never eats anything while on the road but pretzels.

"The minute I begin to eat," he said last night, "I lose my nerve. Years ago the doctors told me not to eat anything substantial, if I ever got into an excitement, and I have followed that advice ever since. The result is, I never lose my nerve."

And another result is, that the supply of pretzels here has diminished to a remarkable degree. But Mr. Walsky's nerve goes on.

He is a theatrical man of large experience. Was with the National and Academy at Washington for years, and is the trainer of Bessie Leonard, the all-around athlete, known as the "Country Sport," of Washington. He will, while here, endeavor to get up a wrestling match between Leonard and Mackey, both of Washington.

HAULED THOUSANDS.

Record-Breaking Work of the C. & O.—Railway Notes.

Now that the records are in, it appears that the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway hauled a total of more than 5,000 people to Newport News on Tuesday, not including therein two thousand carried over by its boat from Norfolk. All of these were carried either from this city, points beyond on the main line, or James River division, or stations on the peninsula division. A total of thirteen trains were operated that day with an aggregate of 113 coaches, all of which were well filled and many packed. Besides the train from the main line, extra coaches were run on both trains the day before. All these trains were run through without accident, and all arrived in time for the launching, the last reaching Newport News fourteen minutes before the vessel left the ways.

A meeting will be held at Floyd Court-house on April 16th in the interest of the movement to build an electric railway from Roanoke or Salem through the counties of Floyd and Grayson to Mount Airy. The people of Floyd are earnestly in favor of the movement, and no trouble is anticipated in raising the requisite capital. The proposed road would open up one of the richest agricultural, mineral and timber sections in the State. Few counties are richer in natural resources than these, but owing to their inaccessibility they are almost wholly undeveloped. Christiansburg, and other Norfolk and Western points are the nearest. Floyd is a fine bright tobacco country, and this and every other interest there would be greatly nourished by some means of reaching the markets of the State.

BROWN BEHIND BARS.

Sentenced in Court and Taken to the Penitentiary.

Theron H. Brown, the defaulting cash-ier of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, was yesterday sentenced by Judge S. B. Witt, of the Hustings Court, to one year in the penitentiary, in accordance with the verdict of the jury, and was later in the day taken to the penitentiary to begin his term.

Brown will serve one year from yesterday, less the time allowed off for good behavior. He has not yet been assigned to duty, though it is likely that he will be given a clerkship or some other easy berth, as his health is bad, and he is well qualified as clerk and book-keeper.

BATTALION DRILL.

R. L. I. Blues to Attend World's Fair at St. Louis.

Both companies of the Richmond Light Infantry, Blues Battalion, will assemble at their armory to-morrow night at 8:15 o'clock in service uniform, for battalion drill.

The historic battalion is considered to be in a most prosperous condition, both companies having a full quota of men and entire field outfit.

The organization has practically decided to attend the World's Fair at St. Louis next September, and will be there on "Virginia Day."

Lecture on Liquid Air.

The next free lecture in the Virginia Mechanics' Institute course will be given Thursday evening, April 15th. The subject will be "Liquid Air," discussed by Professor J. Rufus Hunter, of the chair of chemistry, Richmond College. Many interesting experiments will illustrate the discourse. The public is cordially invited and tickets are not required.

Returned From Wedding Trip.

Mr. Roy Coleman and bride, formerly Miss Helen Louise Hobart, of this city, who were married in Washington April 4th, returned to the city Sunday and are now at home at No. 1019 East Clay Street. Mr. Coleman holds a responsible position with the Southern Bell Telephone Company in this city, and has resided in Richmond about two years. His bride is a charming and cultured young lady.

Judge Christian Named.

Governor Montague yesterday designated Judge F. P. Christian, of Lynchburg, to hold a part of the April term of the Circuit Court of Washington county for Judge F. B. Hutton. The term began yesterday.
